

Sean Gilbert

Sean is a gifted teacher and minister. He is a faculty member with Uniting College. His recently awarded PhD thesis is entitled, Spiritual Affections and the Pastoral Disposition.

Sean is a reader of culture, a player of acoustic music, a writer of liturgy and an occasional writer of poetry and song. He is also a keen political observer, a life-long supporter of Essendon Football Club, and in 2019 coached an U/16 district-cricket club to a Premiership. Sean is married to Christine and has a blended family of five. He delights in his two grandchildren.
