

Post-colonial Worship in Australia

Lecture and Panel Conversation

What does it mean to reshape Christian worship in the light of our acknowledgement of the particular history and place of this land we inhabit, and the recognition of the story, culture and presence of its First Peoples?

What does it mean to recognise how much our liturgical practices are shaped by northern hemisphere church traditions and contexts? How may our worship more authentically reflect this land and its peoples?

Panel: Rev Ken Sumner - State Development Worker, Uniting Aboriginal and Islander Christian Congress. Rev Dr Sarah Agnew - Minister, Christ Church Uniting Church. Rev Peter Balabanski - Minister, St John's Anglican Church. Dr Tanya Wittwer - Lecturer, Uniting College and member, St Stephen's Lutheran Church.

Friday 6 September, 7.30-9.00pm

Uniting College for Leadership & Theology
312 Sir Donald Bradman Dr, Brooklyn Park

Stephen Burns

Rev Prof Stephen Burns is one of the best teachers of liturgy in Australia. He is a lecturer and researcher in the faculty of Pilgrim Theological College in Melbourne and the University of Divinity.

Stephen is a prolific writer and an engaging speaker. He is originally from the UK and is a priest with the Church of England, now working ecumenically in placement with the Uniting Church.

Cost $10

Book at trybooking.com/CTOTS

More info at cmla.org.au

An interdenominational event hosted by
The Centre for Music, Liturgy and the Arts, Uniting Church SA